A Look at Tonight's Match

The Cedarville University women's soccer team hosts the University of Rio Grande Red Storm in an American Midwest conference matchup tonight at Yellow Jacket Field.

Cedarville is 8-4-2 on the year including a 5-2-2 mark in the American Midwest Conference. The Lady Jackets posted a 1-1 double overtime deadlock at Daemen College this past Saturday afternoon. The Red Storm dropped a pair of home AMC matches this past weekend to Roberts Wesleyan and Houghton. Rio Grande is now 3-11-2 overall with a 1-8-2 league record.

Junior forward Kelly Wise continues to pace CU with 14 goals and one assist for 29 points. Wise, the AMC's leader in game-winning goals and the league's second-leading scorer, is questionable for tonight's contest due to a knee injury.

Kelsey Watkins, a freshman from Parkersburg, WV, is second on the squad with seven goals and a pair of assists for 16 points.

Kelly Wise

Rookie Rachel Brownfield has added three goals with an assist for Cedarville to rank third on the team in scoring with seven points. Classmates Dresden Matson has three goals for six points and Becky Burton has five points on two goals and an assist.

Senior Katie Koch has notched a goal and is tied for the team lead with three assists with sophomore Megan Spring.

Senior keeper Amber Laing is healthy again and has a 0.78 goals allowed average including three shutouts.

In spite of scoring just one goal in the last four matches, Cedarville has outscored opponents by a 32-14 margin including a 12-4 advantage in shots on goal.

Rio Grande has been struggling offensively as well with also just one goal in their last four games. Sophomore midfielder Jennifer Hahn and rookie defender Elizabeth Scudder have two goals each to lead the Red Storm. Freshman Maggie Harris has added two assists on the year.

Goalkeeping duties are handled by Sarah Sandlin. The senior keeper has registered 147 saves while posting a 2.31 goals against average. She has four shutouts to her credit.

Senior Molly Corson, a midfielder from Circleville, Ohio, is the first player in Rio's young women's soccer history to participate all four years in the program.

Rio Grande is being outscored by their opponents 37-7 including a 16-9 margin in shots on goal.

Cedarville leads the all-time series with Rio Grande by a 3-0 margin including a 4-0 victory last fall at Yellow Jacket Field. Cedarville has outscored the Red Storm 12-0 in the three previous meetings.

Last Time Out

Lady Jackets salvage tie at Daemen

Kelsey Watkins' second-half goal allowed Cedarville to come away with a 1-1 draw in double overtime at Daemen in an American Midwest Conference contest on Saturday.

The host Wildcats got on the board in the 11th minute to grab the early lead. It didn't look good for the Lady Jackets, who had been shutout three consecutive times and with leading scorer Kelly Wise going down with an injury in the opening period.

However, Watkins broke Cedarville's 360-plus minute scoring drought with her seventh goal of the campaign. It came unassisted in the 67th minute.

Cedarville, 8-4-2 overall and 5-2-2 AMC, held a slim 12-11 edge in shots on goal despite being outshot 20-15 overall. Amber Laing made 10 saves in goal. Daemen is 6-6-3 and 4-4-3 AMC.
